PRESS RELEASE

Publicis Groupe Acquires Kekst and Company, Incorporated World's Premier Strategic and Financial Public Relations Firm

Paris and New York, July 2, 2008 – Publicis Groupe [Euronext Paris : FR0000130577] announced today that it has acquired Kekst and Company, Incorporated, a leading strategic and financial public relations firm based in New York. Kekst and Company, Incorporated, which was privately held, will operate autonomously under its name as a member of Publicis Groupe's Specialized Agencies and Marketing Services, and will continue to be led by founder and Chief Executive Officer Gershon Kekst.

Maurice Lévy, Chairman and CEO of Publicis Groupe, said, "Kekst and Company is the premier strategic and financial public relations firm in the world with a client base that is second to none. Its well-earned reputation reflects the cumulative judgment and experience of professionals who have been at the center of many of the most high-profile, complex business communications challenges over the past three and a half decades. Whether advising clients on how to handle a crisis or how to maximize an opportunity, there simply is no other financial communications firm in the world like Kekst and Company."

"We are investing in Kekst and Company today because of the depth of its professional capability and its future growth potential. I am very pleased that Kekst and Company will continue to be led by my good friend and trusted advisor, Gershon Kekst, as well as the senior leadership that has built Kekst since its founding. We view this as an extremely important addition to our Groupe's capabilities and its strategy to provide clients around the world with the highest-quality communications services possible," said Maurice Lévy.

Gershon Kekst said, "I have known Maurice for 20 years and have enormous admiration for his unique success in making Publicis Groupe the global leader it is today. We have high expectations for this combination as it will preserve the best characteristics of our firm and its culture, while offering us opportunities to grow with the support of a well respected global communications partner."
