

Publicis Health Acquires PlowShare Group

New York, NY, November 13, 2017 — Publicis Health, part of Publicis Groupe, today announced the acquisition of PlowShare Group, the leading communications agency that specializes in working exclusively with nonprofit organizations and federal agencies on social issue and cause marketing campaigns. Founded more than 20 years ago, PlowShare is the largest social issues communications agency in the U.S., working with charitable and government groups such as American Red Cross, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Habitat for Humanity, Make-A-Wish Foundation, March of Dimes, World Wildlife Fund, among others.

PlowShare provides a full suite of marketing and advertising services, but is best known for its focus on paid and public service announcement media placement. Last year, PlowShare helped its clients garner $660 million in donated PSA media time and space. In addition, PlowShare offers a proprietary suite of technology tools to help clients manage campaign distribution, monitor media usage and optimize placement performance.

“PlowShare’s mission of harnessing the power of communications for social good neatly dovetails with Publicis Health’s vision to be the indispensable force for health and wellness business transformation through the alchemy of creativity and technology—for good,” said Nick Colucci, Chairman & CEO, Publicis Health. “The agency’s unique offering is a perfect fit and I’m delighted to welcome them to the Publicis Health family.”

“We strongly believe that media and communications have the power to do good and improve and save people’s lives, which wholly aligns with Publicis Health’s vision to do good,” said Jeff Boal, President & Founder, The PlowShare Group. “PlowShare is proud to be a part of Publicis Groupe and we look forward to building great things together.”
